Are you currently a high school senior or a post-high school graduate in need of financial assistance for further education?

If so, the Iowa Credit Union Foundation (ICUF) wants to help you reach your potential. ICUF's Family Involvement Board (FIB) scholarship program was created to encourage high school seniors and post-high school graduates to learn more about the credit union movement and to prepare them for the future.

Application Deadline: February 3, 2012

Apply today at iowacreditunionfoundation.org/family-involvement-board-scholarship.cfm. Several scholarships are available. Requirements and additional details of the scholarship can be obtained from the ICUF website.

Each applicant is required to answer the following question in no more than 500 words:

Unfortunately, many Americans try to avoid money matters altogether and deal with problems as they arise. However, even with some knowledge about managing finances, you can maintain a healthy financial life.

*How are you educating yourself on personal finance and money management issues?
Please include how you can utilize your credit union's financial education expertise.*

The Iowa Credit Union Foundation is a non-profit whose mission is to help Iowans build wealth, responsibility and independence.
